

Local Matters.

To our very subscribers.
Having, from the best of Jeopardy, no one to give us news, we have, Mr. Frazee, we do live in state to our city subscribers who are in distress, that their interests will be made out to date so as to present during the present week, and the like. The same is the case with Mr. Frazee, he has the work. Those who prefer it, and do not care to pay by the week, can settle with Mr.
Frazee, by paying half-yearly or quarterly in advance. We hope this new arrangement will prove satisfactory and satisfactory to all concerned.

Divine Service.—Rev. E. D. House will preach at the Warden House at 11 o'clock this morning.

(Rev. Mr. Ashby, of the St. Louis conference, will preach at Wesley Chapel at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.)

A portion of ten Indians left the city yesterday, New Orleans, on the way to Indian host, the Choctaw.

(Rev. J. H. Rogers will lecture at Old Fellow's house at 11 A. M. The public are respectfully invited to attend.)

Concealed Weapons.—Wm. Bell was fined $2 by the Sheriff yesterday for exercising concealed weapons.

City Mortality.—The number of individuals at the various cemeteries considering the week ending Saturday, January 10,

Hannibal.—There was some alarm yesterday, but the men did not desire to go to the chain gang.

Linn.—A man named Leslie Clark was arrested last evening on the charge of stealing some articles of clothing in South Memphis.

Personal.—Gen. Houston, of Clark-County, Ky., a lawyer, a statesman, and a leader of the Democratic party of his State, is at the Gayoso house.

(J. W. Watson & Co., No. 5 Monroe Street, and Franklin) will keep open between 10 and 12 o'clock, and 12 and 1 P. M.

New Murtin.—The Terribles of this city will be here Saturday evening, and will have a grand ball at the Hotel New York on Monroe street, at which the case of the distressful news of Mexico will be taken into consideration.

(Col. R. B. Carpenter, a tall-statured attorney arrived in this city on Friday. His tall comings and goings, and his manner of talking, will command the attention of all who will commence the practice of his profession in our courts at an early day.)

Theatrical.—Mr. Collier, the eminent theatrical manager, will be here Saturday morning, and will remain until Monday evening, when he will commence the practice of his profession in our courts at an early day.

Receipts by Cognac.—The receipts of entry by rail during the week ending last evening amounted $2,656 before the entry of horses received by river during the week.

Nondenominational Church.—Rev. W.
C. Gray will preach his final sermon at the First Methodist Church at 11 o'clock tonight.

Memphis.—The Terribles of this city will be here Saturday evening, and will have a grand ball at the Hotel New York
on Monroe street, at which the case of the
distressful news of Mexico will be taken into consideration.

Arrival of the Steamer Hungarian.

New York.—The steamer Hungarian arrived Saturday morning, and the crew and passengers were received by the Metropolitan Police, and the vessel was met by a large number of persons.

Arrival of the Terrible.—The Terribles of this city will be here Saturday evening, and will have a grand ball at the Hotel New York on Monroe street, at which the case of the distressful news of Mexico will be taken into consideration.

Arrival of the steamer Hungary.

Arrival of the steamer Hungary.